

NC3Rs/IAT Animal Technicians' Symposium

22 September 2016, Central London

Draft Agenda
09:15-10:15	REGISTRATION and REFRESHMENTS
10:15-10:25	Welcome and Introduction Mr Ken Applebee, King's College London
10:25-10:50	A new e-learning module to support EU Module 6.3 - Humane methods of killing Professor Paul Flecknell, Newcastle University
10:50-11:15	Home cage monitoring- what happens when you are not looking? Dr Sara Wells, MRC Harwell
11:15-11:40	Variability in the olfactory characteristics of routine husbandry procedures and its impact on laboratory mouse behaviour and welfare Dr Noelia Lopez-Salesansky, Royal Veterinary College
11:40-12:10	REFRESHMENTS and POSTER VIEWING
12:10-12:40	3 x Short talks from submitted abstracts
12:40-13:00	NC3Rs update Dr Katie Lidster and Dr Mark Prescott, NC3Rs
13:00-14:00	LUNCH and POSTER VIEWING
14:00-14:25	Refining the laboratory husbandry of the African clawed frog, Xenopus laevis Dr Lottie Hosie, University of Chester
14:25-14:50	Latest refinement opportunities for the care and use of minipigs Mr Phil Ridley, GlaxoSmithKline
14:50-15:15	Practical experimental and welfare considerations for preclinical imaging Dr Jordi Lopez-Tremoleda, Queen Mary University of London
15:15-15:50	Improving the welfare of laboratory rats and mice: modifications to standard housing and expression of natural behaviours Dr Joanna Makowska, University of British Columbia
15:50-16:00	POSTER PRIZE GIVING
16:00-17:00	NETWORKING RECEPTION